Successful Opening of the Woman's Exchange Lunch Service.

Yesterday, from eleven to one, the ladies of the Women's Exchange, 111 King street, opened their new lunch room and for two hours served as nice a cold lunch as the BULLETIN representative, who was present, ever sat down to, which is saying a good deal, as his tastes are very aristocratic. About fifty people took advantage of an opportunity to obtain an appetizing repast, served on dainty china and at a moderate rate. The ladies are to be congratulated upon the successful manner in which this new departure was inaugurated. Under the careful management of Miss Oliver, the manager, everything went smoothly.

Lunch will be served daily, hereafter, items on the menu ranging in price from five to ten cents. Every article is homemade and excellent in quality. Nothing is sold which is not made and placed on sale by some woman who, in that way, desires to earn a living.

Nothing is received from societies of any kind or people who have places of business. Patrons, therefore, not only get a substantial meal for a little money, but at the same time assist a deserving charity. The Woman's Exchange lunch room ought to become famous as one of the best places in Honolulu to get a nice midday repast.

WHERE THE WOMEN VOTE.

In view of the recent agitations in favor of woman's suffrage in the United States, it may be of interest to know that in nearly all the countries on the globe women have had some form of suffrage for years. We of the United States are somewhat slow in extending to them this privilege.

In England, Scotland, and Wales women vote for all elective officers, except members of Parliament.

In France the women teachers elect women members on all boards of education.

In Sweden women vote for all elective officers except representatives.

In Norway they have school suffrage.

In Ireland they vote for the harbor boards, poor law guardians, and in Belfast for municipal officers.

In Russia women householders vote for all elective officers.

In Finland they vote for all elective officers.

In Austria-Hungary they vote, by proxy, for all elective officers.

In Italy widows vote for members of Parliament.

In Hindostan women exercise the right of suffrage.

Women have municipal suffrage in Cape Colony, which rules one million square miles.

Municipal woman suffrage rules in New Zealand.

Iceland, in the North Atlantic, the Isle of Man, between England and Ireland, Pitcairn Island in the South Pacific, have full woman suffrage.

In the Dominion of Canada women have municipal suffrage in every province, and also in the Northwest Territories.

In the United States twenty-eight States and Territories have given women some form of suffrage.—Ram's Horn.

Pa Lum got a $50 fine from Judge Perry this morning for running a game known as Russian war.

SHE IS NOW THE SECOND.

MISS KING'S FRIENDS DOING SOME SOLID WORK.

Result of the Bulletin's Bicycle Voting Contest Up to Noon Today.—An Error Explained.

Owing to one of those unfortunate mistakes which the "intelligent compositor" is prone to make, the names of Miss Phenie King and H. A. Giles were transposed in the table of votes printed yesterday, with the result that her name appeared fourth on the list instead of third. However, in the light of today's count the mistake has done the young lady no harm, for she is now second on the list, as the BULLETIN predicted she soon would be.

Four hundred and ten votes were cast in the 24 hours ending at noon today, of which 132 were for Miss King. One little wee tot who had to be lifted up to the counter was one of those who voted for that popular young lady this morning. H. E. Walker gained 193 votes on the day and he is as far in the lead as ever, but it remains to be seen what Miss King's friends will do about it in the next few days. The writer knows one man who is going to put in a hundred votes for her in a day or two and there will be probably many others who will do the same before the contest is ended.

With regard to the most popular bicycle, the Cleveland is still in the lead, but the Rambler is commencing to close up the gap that heretofore yawned between first and second place. The Tribune still keeps well ahead for third place and its friends are numerous.

MME YALE'S HAIR TONIC

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: It affords me great pleasure to call the attention of the public to my Yale's Hair Tonic, which is the first and only remedy known to chemistry, which positively turns gray hair back to its original color without dye. I personally endorse its action and give the public my solemn guarantee that it has been tested in every conceivable way, and has proved itself the only Hair Specific. It stops hair-falling, immediately and creates a luxuriant growth. Contains no injurious ingredients. It is not sticky or greasy; on the contrary, it makes the hair soft, youthful, fluffy, keeps it in curl and removes dandruff. For gentlemen and ladies with hair a little gray, streaked gray, entirely gray and with BALD HEADS, it is specially recommended.
